

How can the NAB dictate whether XM radio, which we pay for, offers certain information? Isn't that against the constitution? I'm tired of big organizations getting their way because of their size and $$$! The regular TV and radio stations bombard us with garbage ads and the like, and we love satellite radio.

I respectfully ask that you reject petition 04-160.

Laura Blomquist